

BURIAL OF GEORGE W. LANE.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF A GOOD MAN.

THE SERVICES AT MADISON SQUARE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The incessant rain yesterday morning did not prevent the Madison Square Presbyterian Church from being nearly filled at the funeral of George W. Lane. Business men and others who were among them four days before, while the funeral services were being held, were among them yesterday. The funeral services were held at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, at 11 o'clock, and were attended by a large number of men with gray hair, who were among them four days before, while the funeral services were being held, were among them yesterday. BAD MONEY ON THE HORSE CARR.

"Do you see those three women?" said a horse car conductor pointing to three decorated brunettes seated in the car. "Well, they have just tried to pass a half-dollar on me. It was brand new and fixed up about as well as I could get it. I thought I would take it, but I have just found out that it is a fake. I have just found out that it is a fake. I have just found out that it is a fake."

The fifteenth annual dinner of the Wesleyan University Club of New York will be held at Clark's, No. 22 West Twenty-third-st., on Friday, at 6:30 p.m. The college club will be present. Acceptances have already been received from Mayor Felt, Dr. O. H. Tiffany and many others. The meeting is expected to be the largest and most enjoyable in the history of the club.

A copy of Marie Colombe's book, "Sarah Bernhardt," which is a thoroughly accurate account of the adventures of Sarah Bernhardt in this country, arrived by the last French steamer and was obtained by a publishing house in the city yesterday morning. A force of translators, sixty-five in number, was immediately set to work, and the volume, containing 350 pages, was finished at 10 o'clock last night. The book will be sold on the streets this evening.

FUNERAL OF W. REID GOLD. Funeral services were held over the body of W. Reid Gold, at his late residence, No. 141 West Sixty-fourth-st., yesterday. The Rev. E. B. Torrey, of the Christian Church, officiated. There were no pallbearers and few flowers. Excepting a number of the members of the Seventh Regiment, only the immediate family and friends were present. The body had been embalmed by Charles A. Benedict, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

FINISHING UP A ROUND OF CALLS. The one o'clock train from Twenty-third-st. to the Sixth Avenue Elevated Road yesterday morning, had among its passengers four young men who had only been to make twenty-six calls out of the thirty which they had planned. They received the last four, however, by passing around a bottle, the neck of which was decorated with a red seal, but which contained a liquid which looked and smelled suspiciously like whisky.

DETECTING A SENSATIONAL STORY. L. Wenger, of No. 100 Third-ave., who was carried to Bellevue Hospital on Tuesday night with a wound in his head, supposed to have been inflicted by a burglar in Second-ave., by passing around a bottle, the neck of which was decorated with a red seal, but which contained a liquid which looked and smelled suspiciously like whisky.

The statistics of the Coroner's Office for 1883 are as follows: Sudden deaths, 1,200; deaths where there was no medical attendance, principally children under one year of age, 1,231; accidental deaths by violence, 414; deaths from falls, 1,200; deaths from drowning, 225; run over by vehicles and killed, 87; homicides, 49; ante-mortem examinations made, 18; total number of cases attended to, 3,885.

STEAMSHIP CAPTAIN DROWNED. The steamship Lord Collingwood arrived yesterday from Trieste, having been twenty-one days from Gibraltar. She lost her captain and two other officers, and was damaged by a hurricane on last Friday, an American three-masted schooner was sighted, under short sail and laboring heavily. On Tuesday morning, the schooner was sighted, under short sail and laboring heavily. On Tuesday morning, the schooner was sighted, under short sail and laboring heavily.

WORK OF THE BUREAU OF PERMITS. George A. McDermott, the Mayor's Marshal, has made up his report of the business of the Bureau of Permits for last year. There were 25,225 permits issued for 1883, and 21,927 for 1882. Of this amount, $53,754.75 was paid into the City Treasury, $43,000 into the Sinking Fund, and $2,000 into the Fund for the improvement of the City. The amount received exceeds that of any previous year by $10,007.75. The most of the increase was due to the large sums received for pavements, and to the increase in the number of public carts, which has increased to 9,366.

BROOKLYN. The contract for cleaning the sewers this year has been awarded by City Works Commissioner Hopes to Peter Hill at $100,000. The new Coroner, Drs. Menninger and Hesse, appointed Alexander Walker as their deputy yesterday. Mr. Walker was formerly Supervisor of the Twelfth Ward, and has held his present position for three years.

At the annual meeting of the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections, Mr. Van Sledright was re-elected president, and Mr. Kisson treasurer. John Brust was arranged yesterday before Justice Massey for compelling his wife to walk barefooted in the snow from No. 9 Boerum-st. to No. 124 Throop-st., nearly half a mile. He held the muzzle of a loaded revolver at her head.

The two fashionably dressed young women, the Misses Ella Harrison and Minnie Meyers, of West 124th-st., who were arrested yesterday for stealing silk handkerchiefs and other articles from the store of Patrick O'Hanlon, at No. 27 Lafayette-ave., were on trial before Justice Waite in the City Hall Police Court. Both were found guilty but sentence was deferred until Saturday.

The Board of Supervisors for 1884 will meet today to organize. Supervisor-at-Large will preside, the most important business being the selection of a president pro tem, who will appoint the standing committees for the year. Robert Adams, of the Thirtieth Ward, is the Republican candidate, and John N. McKane, of Gravesend, will be voted for by the Democrats. It is feared that although the Republicans have a majority of two in the County, the Democrats will be victorious.

There is a vacant clerkship in the Controller's office, caused by the absence of Thomas F. Farrell, who has gone to sea in the steamer "Hesperus." Under the new Civil Service rules the filling of the vacancy by Controller Brinkhoff makes necessary a competitive examination. The Controller, who is a Democrat, desires to evade the law, and has taken counsel as to whether he cannot assign the services performed by Assistant Controller Farrell to other clerks engaged in the nearly completed work of copying the arrears books.

JERSEY CITY. William H. Edsall, who was convicted a few days ago in the Hudson County Court of General Sessions of a charge of forgery, was delivered yesterday to the State Prison at Sing Sing. The prisoner clung upon hearing the sentence.

The body of Mrs. Mary Brown, an aged widow, who lived at No. 308 Grove-st., was found yesterday in the Morris Canal at the foot of Grove-st. Mrs. Brown had been missing for five weeks. It is believed she committed suicide while in a temporary fit of insanity.

John Kidney, of the foot of Grove-st., yesterday with the intention of committing suicide. He was rescued and sent to the Charity Hospital.

LONG ISLAND CITY. The Board of Aldermen met yesterday and elected Alderman-at-Large Ruggia president, and elected Alderman-at-Large Ruggia president, and elected Alderman-at-Large Ruggia president.

ACCUSED OF ROBBERY IN MASSACHUSETTS. Walter Scott, of No. 337 East Thirty-seventh-st., was taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday on a charge of robbery. He is charged with robbing a man in a car in New York City. He is charged with robbing a man in a car in New York City.

A COLLECTION OF CAVALRY SADDLES. Among the interesting things in the museum of the Military Service Institution, at Governor's Island, is a collection of saddles of the army, from the time of the Revolution to the present. The collection includes saddles of the army, from the time of the Revolution to the present.

FIRE INSTRUCTION IN INDUSTRIAL DESIGN. Mrs. Florence E. Cary has made arrangements to open free classes for women and girls in industrial design at the Grant Opera House. Mrs. Cary is a graduate of Cooper Union and has given instruction in practical carpet designing for years. Apparatus, books, charts, etc., are needed for the new free school.

THE JABEZ HOWES STILL ASHORE. Five tug boats attempted to float the American ship Jabez Howes, which is ashore near Sandy Hook, at high tide yesterday, but were unsuccessful. It is feared that the ship will become a total wreck. She has on board a valuable cargo of wool, lumber and wine for San Francisco.

RECEIPTS AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE. The receipts at the Custom House of duties on imports and drawback from bonds for December show a decrease of $942,701.90, as compared with December, 1882. The actual amounts are as follows: December, 1882—Imports, $7,423,212.11; drawback, $1,000,000.00; total, $8,423,212.11.
